

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

Agent / Talent / Client Relationship:

The relationship between the talent (Model) and Primary Management Pty Ltd (Agent) is documented in a written contract. In summary, the Model has engaged the Agent to be their representative and the Agency has the Model's written authority to enter into contracts with any and all Clients on their behalf. The Agent is NOT the Model's employer. The Agent acts as an intermediary between the Model and the Client. In accordance with the ATO's "PAYG withholding for performing Models" guidelines, the Agency is entitled to raise invoices and collect monies on behalf of the Model, as an intermediary, even though the contract exists between Client and Model.

The Client is defined as the "end-user" by the Australian Taxation Office's (ATO) "PAYG withholding for performing Models" guidelines. Web address for these ATO guidelines: <https://www.ato.gov.au/businesses-and-organisations/hiring-and-paying-your-workers/payg-withholding/in-detail/performing-artists-contracted-to-perform-promotional-activity>

A contract is created between Client and Model once a booking is confirmed with the Agency whether written, written and partly oral or wholly oral as stated in the ATO's "Superannuation Guarantee Ruling SGR 2005/2" (point 38).

The Client is responsible for the payment of Superannuation Guarantee Contributions for the Model at the legislated rates.

Workers Compensation Insurance:

It is the responsibility of the Client to ensure that they have adequate levels of Workers Compensation Insurance to cover all Models used at all locations (including travel to and from a location). The Agency is not required to, nor holds, any such insurance for Models.
